If your child also does remote care, your charges will come out on the same day, but may appear as two charges. Please see remote care tuition sheet.

Calculate your monthly payment:

(Days Your Child is Attending for the Calendar Month) X (Rate) = (Monthly Payment)

If a card declines for a payment, the payment must be paid by the end of that week. If not, attendance for your child will not be allowed. You can contact Delaney Harty at the phone number and email below to take care of declined payments or add a new credit card to your billing account.
